

Lyndale Reading Club

(100 Book Club)

Purpose: To encourage students to develop a love of reading; To encourage independent students reading.

- Grade level expectations will be consistent within the grade level and transparent across the school
- Teachers will create individual goals for students that demonstrate special needs (i.e. some EL students or special education students).
- Differentiated goals between teacher and student will be discussed during fall parent/teacher conferences.
- Books may be read at home OR at school.
